JUST BEFORE THE BATTLE

Republicans Are Confident of a Sweeping National Victory.

FORECASTS OF ALL PARTIES

In Colorado, Republican State Chairman Ford Says There Will be Substantial Republican Majority.

New York, Nov. 4.—The Republican committee gave out today the final [illegible] statement.

On the eve of election the Republican national committee's forecast of the result has [illegible] unimpeachable figures and [illegible] differs from its previous forecasts only in increasing the magnitude of the triumph which Tuesday will bring to the cause of national honor and prosperity. All the committee's information, including [illegible] unwilling witnesses, [illegible] in indicating the conclusion that Tuesday's election will prove an overwhelming landslide for McKinley and seal the doom of Bryan and Bryanism forever.

The [illegible] of this [illegible] overwhelming popular revolt against the Bryan Populist ticket is perfectly obvious. It consists in the desire [illegible] the prosperity which they have enjoyed and [illegible] the policies of the McKinley administration [illegible] calamity [illegible] Bryan [illegible].

The laboring man [illegible] shroud of their lives the black [illegible] McKinley's inauguration and [illegible] which has meant [illegible] employment and increased wages.

They listen now to Bryan's invitation [illegible] their advantage if they respectfully decline [illegible].

The business men of the United States remember what happened [illegible] and know what the practical result of [illegible] to the [illegible] all lines of [illegible] enterprise during the last four years. They [illegible] regard the proposition [illegible] Bryan and his free silver and free trade theories as a thing short of insanity.

The farmer is [illegible] likely to forget the evil days when they were reduced to bankruptcy and almost to [illegible] with mortgages lifted [illegible] farm products bringing greatly increased prices and their homes filled with comfort [illegible] hang their [illegible] the fallacies of 1896 and the [illegible] agitation of 1900.

All who have remunerative work [illegible] wages paid them and [illegible] business to [illegible] and [illegible] who has money deposited in savings banks or invested in homes of their own have been confronted with [illegible] reduce the value of their property by one half and have been asked to ratify this suicidal proposition [illegible].

[illegible] the great mass of the American people [illegible] the same scientific [illegible] overwhelming [illegible] McKinley [illegible] against Bryan which Tuesday will [illegible].

The people know that [illegible] McKinley that wages have risen to a higher rate than ever, that employment is abundant for all, that the savings of labor [illegible] a half billion dollars [illegible] and [illegible] safeguard [illegible] against the advocates of repudiation and so they naturally have decided to re-elect him and continue the conditions of prosperity and [illegible].

The committee's final forecast claims [illegible] the following states for McKinley:

California 9, Connecticut 6, Delaware 3, Illinois 24, Indiana 15, Iowa 13, Kansas 10, Kentucky 13, Maine 6, Maryland 8, Massachusetts 15, Michigan 14, Minnesota 9, New Hampshire 4, New Jersey 10, New York 36, North Dakota 3, Ohio 23, Oregon 4, Pennsylvania 32, Rhode Island 4, South Dakota 4, Washington 4, West Virginia 6, Wisconsin 12, Wyoming 3—total [illegible]

COLORADO

Republicans Confident Fusionist Claims Vary Greatly

Denver, Nov. 4.—Milton Smith, chairman of the Democratic party in the state today estimated Bryan's plurality in Colorado at the coming election at 75,000. Although [illegible] fusion on the state ticket was effected when the state conventions of the Democrats, Silver Republicans and Populists were held, each party has maintained separate headquarters during the campaign. The chairmen of the other two fusion parties do not estimate Bryan's plurality quite so liberally, but both agree that it will be over 60,000. The claim of the fusionists as to the result in the state election is that James B. Orman, Democrat, will win by [illegible]. Silver Republican State Chairman [illegible] says that not over [illegible] members of the next legislature will be pledged to vote for Senator Wolcott to succeed himself. Congressman Bell's election is claimed by [illegible] and Shafroth's by 10,000.

In Arapahoe county, the largest in the state and in which Denver is situated, what is called a straight Democratic county ticket is in the field. The fusionists claim that this will not draw greatly from their support.

Republican State Chairman Ford, while in Kansas, in reference to the result of the national election says:

The entire state Republican ticket will be elected. Arapahoe county will give a substantial majority and the outside counties will come down to Arapahoe with a fair Republican plurality.

CALIFORNIA

After a Quiet Campaign a Full Vote Is Expected

San Francisco, Nov. 4.—It is expected the full registered vote will be cast in California notwithstanding the campaign has been an unusually quiet one. Both the Republican and Democratic central committees claim the state by the same plurality, [illegible]. A conservative estimate is that the state will give five or six thousand either way. The Republican committee claims all seven congressmen but give no figures. The Democrats claim they will elect their nominees in the Second, Fourth, Fifth and Seventh districts. It is generally conceded that Kahn, Rep., has a hard fight for re-election in the Fourth district, which is included in San Francisco. The district is normally Democratic. The legislature is claimed by both parties. No United States senator is to be elected.

OHIO

Cincinnati, Ohio, Nov. 4.—Charges have been made of false registration in Cincinnati and other Ohio cities. While the last census gave Cincinnati a population of [illegible] its registration is [illegible] and a citizens' committee has been organizing today for systematic work with detectives for arrests on Tuesday. It is claimed also that colonizations have been made in some of the close congressional districts. The Republicans are trying to gain a congressman in the Third district. This is one of the districts in which charges of fraud are made on both sides. In the Fifteenth district the election of Congressman Van Voorhees, Rep., is generally conceded. On account of the active work of Mayor Jones of Toledo there is some talk of N. D. Cochran, Dem., defeating Congressman Southard, Rep., in the Ninth, but the Jones vote is such an uncertain element this year in Ohio that it has not been cutting much of a figure in the estimate. In the Twelfth district—Emmett Tompkins, Rep., is making a hard fight to defeat John J. Lentz, Dem., and on account of the action of Lentz against the administration in the last congress special interest is taken in this district. It is currently reported that Chairman Hanna and State Chairman Dick have given special attention to the Twelfth district. While both state committees will receive returns in Columbus on Tuesday night Canton will also be a point of interest since President McKinley has decided to remain there to receive returns. It is understood that there may be a distinguished party with him on Tuesday night and if he is re-elected the tour on his return to Washington next day will be eventful at Canton as well as elsewhere.

PROHIBITION CANDIDATE MAKES A STATEMENT

Peoria, Ill., Nov. 4.—John G. Woolley, the [illegible] candidate for president [illegible] work of the campaign [illegible] Mr. Woolley [illegible] campaigns [illegible] to Toronto [illegible] prosperity at home. The Prohibition party has assumed many [illegible] and [illegible] the king and savior of the world.

John G. Woolley.

[illegible] Oliver Stewart [illegible] work of the Prohibition party [illegible]

The Prohibition campaign has been the most thorough and active in the history of the party. We have urged the voters to [illegible] the Republican and Democratic parties [illegible]. We have asked those parties [illegible] their inability to [illegible] with reference to which they have made promises and seem to take positions. We believe and declare that the times are ripe for the [illegible] of the old parties and that [illegible] new party can or should win that makes appeal to anything lower than the [illegible].

The demand now is for a party that stands for a moral principle and such is the Prohibition party. Whether [illegible] is immaterial. It will [illegible] the [illegible] ticket in American politics.

The Prohibition vote is not easy to estimate, for much of it is a silent vote, but [illegible] to no less than 300,000 with fair prospects of half a million or more. Whatever [illegible] national campaign will begin next Wednesday and continue without interruption until next [illegible].

SCHURMAN TO SIXTO LOPEZ

Reply Made to Open Letter from the Filipino Leader.

THE FILIPINOS ARE INCAPABLE

Of Self-Government Pulling Down Flag Would Invite Anarchy and Foreign Interference.

Buffalo, N. Y., Nov. 4.—Prof. Jacob Schurman, who [illegible] through this city this afternoon [illegible] from the west to Ithaca, handed to the Associated Press the following reply to an open letter addressed to him by Sixto Lopez:

Mr. Sixto Lopez's open letter of the 3d instant addressed to me, although I have not yet seen it except in the newspapers, is a gratifying proof of the correctness of the report of the Philippine commission.

Mr. Lopez by his declarations confirms all I have said of the promising educational possibilities in the Philippines and of the [illegible] character of the educated Filipinos. [illegible] may be taken as a type and [illegible] of the future. Neither does Mr. Lopez deny that the masses of the inhabitants of the Philippine islands of all tribes and races are uneducated and [illegible]. Furthermore by silent [illegible] the report of the commission Mr. Lopez acknowledges that the majority of the Filipinos [illegible] in different tribes and [illegible] originated with the [illegible] have diffused it [illegible] representatives of the aims and [illegible] of the United States.

Racial and Tribal Differences

[illegible] Mr. Lopez [illegible] that the inhabitants of the Philippines are marked by great racial and tribal differences, by immense varieties of social conditions which range all the way from the civilization of Manila down through all phases of barbarism to the naked savages of Mindanao and north Luzon, by a bewildering multiplicity of languages which are mutually unintelligible, by dense ignorance on the part of the masses of the people [illegible] by the absence of [illegible] the sentiment of nationality and [illegible] in Spanish lands.

And the consequence [illegible] is equally indisputable [illegible] the various and diverse [illegible] of the Philippine islands are at the present time incapable of being organized as a nation. They are utterly unfit to accept sovereignty over the archipelago even if the American people wished to invest them with it; nor have they any hope of ever [illegible] a free and self-governing nation except in the continuance of American sovereignty over them and [illegible] the [illegible] prosperity and ever-[illegible] liberty of self-government which the American flag guarantees them.

Prey to Anarchy

[illegible] the Philippines a prey to internal feuds and domestic insurrections which would quickly beget anarchy. This would necessitate the intervention of foreign powers for the protection of lives and property of their subjects. Of course the islands would eventually be divided up among them and the Filipinos would exchange the free institutions and home rule which the American people desire as soon as possible and [illegible] the largest degree practicable to bestow upon them for the grinding [illegible] of the old world imperialism [illegible].

It is the [illegible] of our republic to save the Filipinos, [illegible] in general are most promising, estimable and even lovable people, from this cruel fate and to train them up to the use of [illegible] self-government just as quickly and as generously as they [illegible] for any portion [illegible] to exercise [illegible] functions so arduous and so unaccustomed.

TROOPS PREPARING FOR THE WINTER IN CHINA

(Correspondence of Associated Press.)

Tien-tsin, China, Sept. 28.—Russian operations to the north of China are being watched with keen interest by the other powers. Since the taking of the Pestang forts followed a few days later by the occupation of the fort at [illegible], that the Russian advance up the line of the railway toward Shan-hai-kwan and the great coal mines at Tung-shan has been steady. The details of the movement are lacking owing to the absence of telegraphs or mails but it is known that the Russians are now in the vicinity of Tung-shan. The coal supply probably will be the most important question which will confront the armies and the value of the control of the Tung-shan mines is evident. With a railway direct to Tong-ku, Tien-tsin and part of the way to Peking, the Tung-shan mines if captured unharmed, will easily supply the armies now in China and all the troops that are expected.

Shan-hai-kwan is also regarded as a point of vital importance. It is an open and ice free port with deep water and natural advantages for the construction of docks. The railway which connects it with Tong-ku was built by British capital and leased to the Chinese. That it will form a subject of diplomatic negotiation is not doubted in well informed circles. In the event of the occupation of Shan-hai-kwan by Russia or any other nation it is understood that America and the other powers represented here will demand port privileges. Practically but eight weeks remain until the closing of Ta-ku by ice and Shan-hai-kwan remains the only available open port for the landing of belated supplies or supplies necessitated by the exigencies of the situation.

All the armies now have the situation pretty well in hand as far as winter supplies are concerned and every effort is being made to push forward preparations for the rigorous weather to which the troops will be exposed. Wherever possible the British, Japanese and European troops are being quartered in houses. There is not a foot of roofage now vacant in the city. Every house has been commandeered or rented and rents for private dwellings have advanced 100 per cent. The large compounds or walled grounds which usually surround dwellings in the east are all occupied as camps. These quarters are much sought after as the thick brick walls often 15 feet high form wind breaks and are also utilized as one wall of a barracks, timber and matting roofs being constructed on the inner side. In none of the concessions is property allowed to be rented or sold without the consent of the military authorities of the respective nations.

VICTOR

Burial of Mark Quinn By Members of Miners Union—A Successful Hunting Party.

Victor, Nov. 4.—The remains of Mark Quinn were conveyed from Dunn's undertaking parlors at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon to their final resting place at Sunnyside cemetery. He was a member of the Bull Hill Miners union and beside this body there was a large number of friends who followed the remains to the cemetery.

SITUATION AS IT IS

The only hope of the Democracy is [illegible] all [illegible] indications are valueless and that a mysterious force is at work preparing a Bryan landslide for next Tuesday. There are no signs of the starting of such a landslide and there is no apparent reason to expect any other result than a sweeping Republican victory.—(Philadelphia North American.

DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE

Returns to Nebraska to Spend the Last Day of the Campaign

ANTE-ELECTION STATEMENT

Claims That He Will Be Elected and Says He Wants no Support From Trust Magnates

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 4.—W. J. Bryan and Mrs. Bryan arrived at their home this evening from Chicago. Tomorrow morning Mr. Bryan will start on a flying trip through Nebraska devoting the last day of the campaign to his own state.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryan found a large number of their friends at the depot to greet them. Many of them escorted them to their residence.

The trip from Chicago was comparatively quiet. Mr. Bryan slept during the early [illegible] and did not make his appearance until after 10 o'clock. He had just arisen when the train reached [illegible] in Iowa. Several hundred people had congregated at the depot and there were calls for a speech. Mr. Bryan said he never made speeches on Sunday, but he shook hands with [illegible] present before the train started. There were similar crowds at Red Oak and Pacific Junction and when late in the afternoon the train landed the candidate in his own state at the town of Plattsmouth there was a still stronger demonstration. The crowd was large and there were many calls for Mr. Bryan. He declined to speak and the train did not remain at a standstill long enough to afford opportunity to personally greet many persons. Mr. Bryan was met at Omaha by a number of his personal friends.

During the day Mr. Bryan was asked for a statement as to the probable outcome of the election. In reply he said:

The fight has been made and I am [illegible]. Money and coercion robbed us of a victory in 1896 but I believe they will be powerless to change the result this time. The people are in earnest and few can be bought. Our organization is much better than it was in 1896 and even where intimidation has been attempted it has angered the employes rather than coerced them.

Mr. Bryan's attention was called to the address of Charles R. Flint and others who claim to be Democrats but urge Democrats to vote the Republican ticket. Mr. Bryan said he was glad to find that Mr. Flint was supporting McKinley and added:

Mr. Flint is the leading member of the Rubber Goods Manufacturing company and is also connected with the starch trust. He has been the most conspicuous defender of the trust principle in the United States having made a speech at Boston in May, 1899, and another at Chicago recently on that subject.

Trusts Magnates Barred

I am glad to have all trust magnates support the Republican ticket, for if I am elected they will not be visiting the White House and asking favors in return for campaign support. Our appeal is to the people who suffer from the trusts, not to the monopolists who profit by them.

Next to imperialism and militarism the trust question has done more than any other question to convince the plain people that the Republican party is entirely given over to the control of organized wealth. Imperialism exploits abroad while private monopoly plunders at home and the large army advocated by the Republican party is intended to support the system of spoliation at home and abroad.

When Mr. Bryan reached Lincoln tonight he had been absent from home for about five and a half weeks. During that time he has traveled about 9,000 miles and has made about 500 speeches. Previous to entering upon this tour he had made at least [illegible] speeches and had traveled about [illegible] miles, making about 16,000 miles traveled and over [illegible] speeches delivered by him during his campaign.

In point of time New York and Illinois have received more attention from the national candidate than any other two states.

The campaign has been confined almost exclusively to the country east of Lincoln and north of the Mason and Dixon line.

Mr. Bryan's health has improved from the beginning of his tour and he has never been under the necessity of resorting to a physician for advice or assistance.

For the most part the weather has been pleasant and no engagement to speak of has been broken.

Mrs. Bryan joined her husband in New York a week ago and has traveled with him since.

OVERDOSE OF MORPHINE

Cripple Creek, Nov. 4.—Lee Maxwell, aged 23, the son of Mrs. J. Harris of Carr avenue, took an overdose of morphine probably with suicidal intent at about 9 o'clock tonight and before a doctor could reach him he was dead. It is said that Maxwell was addicted to the morphine habit. He was Mrs. Harris' son by her first husband.

INFLUENCE OF THE VICEROY

Return of Li Hung Chang to Tien-tsin Restores Confidence.

HIS FAITH IN UNITED STATES

King of Korea Sends Gifts of Flour and Rice to the Allied Forces.

(Correspondence of Associated Press.)

Tien-tsin, China, Sept. 8.—The return of Li Hung Chang [illegible] the [illegible] greatest confidence in the [illegible] that his presence [illegible] beginning of a return [illegible] conditions. Prior to his arrival the native city was practically [illegible]. Little attempt was made by Chinese merchants to resume business [illegible] artisans and tradesmen [illegible] in hiding and the [illegible] made no effort to resume their [illegible]. With his arrival all was [illegible] instantaneously. Hardly had the official [illegible] settled in his yamen [illegible] the edge of the walled city [illegible] well dressed Chinamen began to appear on the streets and now the walled city is being gradually rehabilitated. That portion of it which was not utterly destroyed is being rebuilt after a fashion and all available houses are being made ready for the cold weather.

Li Hung Chang has remained in his yamen during his stay here. He has received [illegible] many visits from business men as he has extensive commercial interests [illegible] officially little notice of his presence has been taken by the powers, Russia and the United States alone having given him official recognition as an official of the Imperial Chinese government. General Chaffee called on the viceroy the day after his arrival from Peking and had a long conference. As cabled to the Associated Press they discussed the situation in an informal manner. Li expressed [illegible] his keen desire for an absolute cessation of hostilities saying that in his belief that was a necessary preliminary to a settlement. As viceroy of Chi-li he said he would promise that not again in his province would the Chinese take the initiative in hostilities.

America he regarded [illegible] as the natural meditating power and he expressed the earnest hope that Washington would use its best offices and efforts to bring about an adjustment of the Chinese question. It is reported on reliable authority that Li has said to others in the same connection that if Great Britain and America would agree on a common policy the settlement would not be long delayed. In the absence of such an agreement he is not sanguine of an early settlement. Through Mr. Tsang, his secretary, the viceroy said to the correspondent here of the Associated Press that he feared the number of nations involved was so great that naturally conflicting demands would render the negotiations long and difficult.

CONDITIONS IN ALASKA

Gen. Randall Commanding That Department Renders His Report.

Washington, Nov. 4.—Brig. General George M. Randall, commanding the department of Alaska, under date of September [illegible] at St. Michael, has submitted his annual report. Much space is devoted to conditions at Nome, which he found upon his arrival at a critical stage. It was difficult to obtain convictions by jury trial in the United States commissioner's office, which [illegible] the lawless. Labor organizations prevented men from working for less than $1 an hour and were the cause of much destitution and [illegible] and destruction of property.

Fully 18,000 people arrived at Nome in June. Claim jumping was the order of the day. Many property owners were disposed to defend their rights by taking the law into their own hands. The arrival of troops prevented serious disorder. The military took charge, thoroughly examined into all complaints and where the rights of property [illegible] determined placed it in the possession of the lawful owners. Captain W. [illegible] Bethel, who acted as [illegible] in these cases, is highly praised by General Randall.

The sanitary conditions were placed under the charge of Major Charles E. [illegible], surgeon. The energetic efforts of the military improved these conditions. There were about 60 men working on the beach at Nome with machines [illegible] declined to give answers concerning the prospects for gold, while others admitted they were taking out only from $4 to $6 a day. The beach was practically worked out last year. The tundra is believed to be rich but it would require larger capital to produce results. There is a large area of country which has not been prospected where gold can yet be found but it requires [illegible] of experience to develop such a country.

General Randall says it has been decided to establish a permanent military station on the island of St. Michael. He recommends the purchase of two stern wheel river steamers for operations on the Yukon and that all coal, forage and building material intended for Alaska [illegible] be started from Seattle not later than June 15 and shipped in sailing vessels for economy. Also that a cable be laid from Seattle via Juneau and Skagway to Valdez connecting with the telegraph line now building over the All-American route from Valdez to Fort Egbert and down the Yukon river to Fort St. Michael. When this line is completed General Randall says military headquarters should be in southern Alaska or at Seattle. He recommends a life saving station in the vicinity of Nome. He also recommends that lighthouses with fog whistles be established in southeast Alaska at the following places: Cape Fox near the southern boundary, Cape [illegible] entrance from the north into Tongass narrows, Five Fingers in Frederick sound; also a fog signal at Unimak pass. He also recommends a military reservation at Dutch Harbor and a coaling station and thinks that the need may arise at some future time for erecting fortifications at this place.

General Randall speaking of the natives of Alaska says:

The Esquimau has been unnoticed by the white men he has befriended and has been allowed to die for lack of care and food. From all points reports have been received of sickness, starvation and mortality so great that it promises to wipe out almost the entire race. Lieut. T. H. Jarvis of the United States revenue service reported these facts to me, and the tug Meteor was placed at his disposal for relief work and about 100 destitute natives cared for at Nome. The revenue cutter Bear has been distributing supplies to the destitute natives while others in the vicinity of St. Michael have been cared for by the commanding officer at that post. Work of Lieutenant Jarvis is highly commended.

In closing this particular feature of his report General Randall says:

In many parts of the United States provision has been made for the Indians. Reservations have been set apart for them and food and clothing supplied. In Alaska it was not necessary heretofore to supply much but the great rush of white men that followed the discovery of gold has completely changed everything. The game and fur-bearing animals have about disappeared and the native's means of sustenance are gone.

I therefore recommend that the government afford some relief to the natives until such time as they can take care of themselves.

ONE OF OUR VOLCANOES.

San Francisco, Nov. [illegible].—The last arrivals on the bark Roderick Dhu report that the volcano of Kilauea, thirty miles from Hilo, was momentarily expected to begin its periodical eruption on account of a series of severe earthquakes that took place on October 10. The first of the shocks on October 10 occurred about 2 o'clock in the morning and was very violent and lasted fifteen seconds. There were three more strong shocks during the day.

HOW TO VOTE

If you wish to vote for McKinley and Prosperity in State and Nation write in the blank space at the head of your ballot the word "Republican." Thus:

"I hereby vote a straight Republican Ticket, except where I have marked opposite the name of some other candidate."

If you wish to vote for any other candidate than a Republican for any office, still write the word 'Republican' in the blank space at the head of the ballot and place a cross (X) in the blank square opposite the name of the candidate you wish to vote for in the body of the ballot. If the candidate you wish to vote for is running for District Judge or Representative in the State Legislature you must draw your pen through the name of the candidate on the Republican ticket that you do not wish to vote for. This rule applies to all offices where there is more than one candidate to be elected. The directions at the head of the ballot are quite specific, and you will have no difficulty in making out your ballot in a legal manner, if you will carefully follow those directions. The head of the ballot, with directions to voters, as it will be found on the official ballot on election day, is at the head of the official list of nominations published every day in The Gazette. If you do not wish to vote a straight party ticket place a cross (X) opposite the name of each candidate on the ballot that you wish to vote for, and do not write anything in the blank space at the head of the ballot. If you vote this last way you will not have to scratch off any names but you should be careful to put a cross (X) opposite every name on the ballot that you really wish to vote for and be careful to vote only for the exact number of persons who are to be elected to any office. The ballot states clearly how many are to be elected for each office, at the head of each office for which candidates are named. The easiest way to vote, and the one most certain to help every Colorado interest, is simply to write the word "Republican" at the head of your ballot, put no other mark upon the ballot, fold it, and place it in the ballot box. This method will save annoyance and mistakes and will vote for clean candidates and good government.

PROTESTS FOR INDIANS

Agent of Five Civilized Tribes Complains of Encroachments

Washington Nov 4—United States Indian Agent Shoenfelt in charge of the Union agency whose jurisdiction comprises the Five Civilized Tribes, protests in his annual report against unlawful occupation of the Indian lands and urges rigid congressional legislation to protect the Indian citizen against the encroachment of aggressive and grasping whites. Many of the Indians are too poor to institute suit for possession.

The total population of the Five Civilized Tribes is estimated at 84[illegible]. The agent says that there is now every reason to believe that the Indian opposition [illegible] and disturbances in this region [illegible]. A few full blooded Creeks are strenuously opposing the allotments of lands and have banded together and [illegible]—to select their allotments. NEWS NOTES FROM PUEBLO

The County Is Certain to Go Republican by Good Plurality.

WILL NOT SCRATCH BALLOTS

Interesting Lecture By Missionary From China—Another Successful Sunday Concert

Pueblo Bureau
Colorado Springs Gazette

Pueblo Nov 4—The situation in Pueblo county indicates that the Republican ticket will be elected next Tuesday by one of the largest majorities ever known in the county. One week ago it looked fairly well for the Republican ticket but since that time and especially in the last four or five days remarkable changes have taken place and there is now no question but that the McKinley electors will carry the county and with them the entire county ticket with [illegible] exception and that one of the minor offices. Many Democrats who are in touch with the political pulse of the people even now concede that their ticket is sure to go down in defeat. Republicans are determined to elect the entire ticket and as a result will not scratch their ballots as many had intended to do a week ago but will vote for the entire ticket which is sure to carry it to victory as Pueblo county is normally Republican and never in its history have the members been so united.

At the Cumberland Presbyterian church tonight Rev Mr M[illegible] returned missionary from China delivered a most interesting address. A musical and literary program was also given and the church was crowded to its utmost capacity.

The latter gentleman more than pleased the audience with his playing of two Chopin numbers. [illegible] was little short of remarkable. The concerts are a feature of Pueblo's society people.

A Flying Bird Cage

The biggest thing of its kind is the flying cage described by Director Hornaday in the November Century in a [illegible] in the New York Zoological park.

An [illegible] unusually rich series of water birds naturally suggested special facilities for their care and display. As a rule it is only the student who pauses to examine in detail large collections of small birds but such large and attractive species as flamingos [illegible] herons pelicans [illegible] and ducks appeal to every one. The birds of showy plumage and [illegible] naturally suggested a cage of great [illegible] with living trees and shade [illegible] of water and so spacious every way that flight within it would be not only possible but [illegible]. The outcome of this idea is the great flying cage a veritable colossus of its kind [illegible] feet long [illegible] feet [illegible] high. A block of ten [illegible] story houses could stand within it [illegible] sidewalk in front [illegible] feet deep. Three forest trees have been enclosed by the cage [illegible] saplings and shrubs grow [illegible] water [illegible] a profusion of aquatic [illegible] make this water bird's paradise quite complete. The trees afford shade shelter and nesting places for the [illegible] herons storks and ibises and the lakelet and the shrubbery are the homes of the ducks geese and flamingos. In all captive bird life I know of no other sight so inspiring as these clean bright birds flying in joyous [illegible] wheeling and circling to and fro in the upper regions of this [illegible] section of nature. With conditions which make it possible for herons and ibises are as [illegible] of flying as monkeys are of climbing. [illegible] has haunted the vicinity of the flying cage and [illegible] to get as near as possible to his relatives within.

THE PARAMOUNT DUTY.

THE time for the paramount issue is nearly past and the time of the paramount duty is at hand

Whatever may be one's opinion in regard to the questions that have been discussed in the campaign it is now the duty of every American citizen who is under the law qualified to do so to exercise the right of suffrage

To vote, and to vote early is the paramount duty It is patriotism in its best and most practical form It is the most important business of the time The result in the legislative and judicial districts and in the state may be very close and a single vote one way or the other may determine the result

The registration in many of the precincts is very large and unless the voting begins early and continues without interruption throughout the day it may be impossible to secure a full vote Do not wait until your party sends a carriage for you but get to the polls as early as possible and vote for prosperity and good state government for McKinley Goudy Hogg and the rest of the Republican state and county ticket

THE MEETING TONIGHT.

THE closing meeting of the campaign in Colorado Springs will be held at the Temple theater this evening

The principal speaker will be Hon John D Long secretary of the navy

Secretary Long has been taking an active part in the campaign since his arrival in this state and has made speeches at Manitou and Cripple Creek that were very favorably received

The Republicans of this vicinity are greatly pleased to have as their guest a man of such prominence in national affairs and one who has so well deserved his honors

The meeting tonight will be an interesting one and there ought to be a very large attendance

THE COLORADO CAMPAIGN.

IN Colorado the Democrats have relied almost entirely upon their phenomenal success of four years ago to carry them through in the present year In Denver the campaign on the part of the Democrats has been one of contentions between rival leaders and the personal fight to secure legislators favorable to one or another of the candidates for United States senator has been made much more prominent than any matter of the state's interests Outside of Denver there has been little disposition on the part of Democrats to argue the questions of the campaign in a reasonable way and they have apparently realized that their best chance was to appeal to the partisan prejudices of their followers or to make personal attacks upon Republican candidates It is so much easier to call a man a traitor or a blackguard than it is to show a reason why he should not be elected to office

The reason for the disadvantage in which the Democrats have found themselves since the beginning of the campaign is easily explainable In the first place the action of the Democratic national convention and the subsequent expressions of the Democratic candidates and leading Democrats of the east made it evident that the Democracy had not only abandoned silver as the paramount issue before the people but that it had neither the power nor the sincere intention to do anything for silver in case of its success So overwhelming was the evidence on this point that no writer or speaker in Colorado has been able to show any practical benefit to be derived for silver from Democratic success

A second source of Democratic disadvantage lies in the fact that the interests of Colorado are very much concerned in the policy of Pacific trade expansion our people are thoroughly in favor of the retention of the Philippines unless it should clearly appear that the natives desire and are capable of maintaining independent self government Two years ago every political party in the state adopted expansion resolutions and the leading fusion newspapers declared that the giving up of the Philippines would be a crime The national Democratic convention in adopting anti-imperialism as the paramount issue acted against the clear sentiment of this state and made it impossible for any loyal Coloradoan to support the Democratic platform without a mental reservation The Democrats of Colorado today do not believe that anti imperialism is the paramount issue they do not believe that we are in danger of militarism and they do not believe that we should abandon the Philippines Upon the plank that the Kansas City convention declared to be the paramount one the Republican national platform represents the sentiments of the Colorado Democrats as well as other citizens of this state more nearly than does the Democratic platform and if the vote were taken on the paramount issue alone Bryan in 1900 would not receive as many Colorado votes as McKinley did in 1896

Nothing but the immense disparity of votes four years ago can save the Colorado Democracy if it is to be saved This is a Republican state and it is the Republican party and not the Democratic that represents our principles and our material interests But the vote four years ago was 6 to 1 against the Republicans and there are always a certain number of people who are slow to change their party The change from Republicanism to Democracy took six years at least to be once accomplished. If the Democratic plurality of 134 000 in 1896 should be changed to a Republican plurality in 1900 it would be a revolution of public sentiment almost without a parallel

But there is good and sufficient reason for it and it will surprise no one if it happens

THE BEST WAY TO VOTE.

THE best way to vote is to write the word Republican in the blank space left for that purpose at the head of the ballot

By doing this your vote will be cast for protection prosperity and the expansion of Pacific trade It will be cast against fusion national dishonor Tammany and Democratic hard times

Some persons with short memories are saying that the situation now is very much as it was just before Harrison's defeat by Cleveland in 1892 A reference to the Gazette files shows that in 1892 on the Saturday before election the betting was 10 to 9 in favor of Cleveland this year it is [illegible] to 1 in favor of McKinley

The United States will relinquish the Philippines whenever consistent with our duties and their welfare but not all the Tagals in Luzon Europe and the United States can take them from us by force

The most complete most reliable and best arranged election returns will be found in Wednesday morning's Gazette

A vote for Stephen Cunningham and Woodworth is a vote for the Republican state platform

A vote for Harris and Brady is a vote for maintaining the dignity and integrity of our courts

A vote for the Republican ticket is a vote for Colorado

THE DEMOCRACY AND THE LABORING MEN

THE appeals that the Democratic party is making to the laboring men of this country assume that these Americans have not sense enough to judge intelligently of current political topics We only are your friends say Mr Bryan and his associates and the other fellows are your enemies so vote for us

The American workingman is too intelligent to be caught by that sort of chaff He says to himself, "Talk is very pretty but there is something better than talk" and as soon as he comes to examine facts he finds that they are all on the side of the Republican party and the Democrats have nothing but empty promises to their credit

An instance of how little Democratic performance amounts to is to be found in the eight hour law passed by the last general assembly in Colorado It was an eight-hour law to be sure but it was so carelessly constructed that the supreme court could not help declaring that it was unconstitutional and by many it is believed that it was made faulty on purpose But the Republican party in the leading plank of its state platform is pledged to enact an eight hour law in this state and if the Republican party is successful in this election it will redeem this pledge with a law that will pass the test of any court in the state.

On national issues the Democratic appeal to the workingmen is that they are not getting their share of the prosperity that even the Democrats have to confess now exists Possibly that is true but if it is the way to help it is not to destroy prosperity The workingman in the factory may not be getting a fair share of the profits but it will not help matters any to close the factory

Eight years ago we heard talk of this same kind The protective tariff we were told helped the rich and increased the burdens of the poor and the Democratic orators even went so far as to say that the tariff was a means of taking money out of the pockets of the poor to put it into the pockets of the rich But when the Democrats had the opportunity to put their theories into practice everybody quickly found that while the Democracy could not better the distribution of wealth it could and did shut off the production of wealth and the poor man was the first and greatest sufferer

When the Republicans came into power again the former conditions were restored The country as a whole began to make money and the workingmen began to get their share possibly not as much as they should have but a great deal more than they had or could have under the Democratic system

The same thing would be true again this year if Mr Bryan was elected that was true when Mr Cleveland became president Confidence would be destroyed money would rush into the banks and out of circulation people all over the country would take in sail as rapidly as possible for fear of coming hard times production would greatly diminish people would economize wherever they could they would buy as little as possible and would engage in no new enterprises or investments The business of retailers would decrease and wholesalers would have no order The factories would lessen their forces and some of them would close altogether and in a few months we would be down to the level of Cleveland hard times once more with an army of tramps overrunning the country and the honest and industrious workingman forced into idleness

Nothing in the world is so easy as promises and the Republican party might promise steam yachts and palaces in California with no more trouble or expense than it costs Mr Bryan to tell the workingmen that they are not getting a fair share of prosperity But facts are what count and however alluring the promises of Democracy may be that policy cannot be good for the workingman which deprives him of the share he has and gives him a much smaller one or none at all in exchange

Regulate the division of wealth as you will—and we are all the time getting towards a more sensible arrangement in this respect—but bear in mind that there can be no division where there is nothing to divide The Democratic party strikes at the foundations of national prosperity It proposes to destroy the protective tariff It proposes to upset confidence in all business and to re open the agitation on the financial question without any prospect of anything better in exchange It proposes to put the business interests of American workingmen in the large cities at the mercy of the rough and criminal element outside of the unions that comes to the surface in times of strikes and to make the national or state government powerless to suppress violence and crime It dares to claim that the American workingman is not loyal to the flag and a lover of his country and it sets before him Tammany Hall and the solid south as an example of what it makes of states and cities where it has undisputed sway

The Democratic party is not the true friend of the workingman It is the party of the political boss the agitator the crank and of the lawless mob

The American workingman does not travel in that class

He finds his interests in that party which is working for the good of the country as a whole the party that keeps the promises it makes the party of prosperity and of progress the party that believes in a government strong enough to protect by law the political business and social rights of every one of its citizens and the party that will in good time solve the important industrial and social problems that are now pressing for settlement

What does the American workingman of 1900 want with a party whose main political principle is to get back to the conditions that existed in the time of the fathers when railroads electricity machinery and trades unions were all unknown?

What does the thinking and progressive reformer find he has in common with a party that refuses to give to congress the right to control and regulate the trusts for fear it will interfere with states rights?

What reason has the honest industrious and intelligent workingman of the north for joining his political fortunes and committing the affairs of the state and nation to a party that [illegible] the southern plantations and the bosses of the slum districts of New York and Chicago?

In 1892 the workingmen trusted Democratic promises and they know how those promises were kept In 1896 they accepted the Republican pledges and they know whether those pledges were fulfilled Now the choice is once more before them between Democratic promises and Republican performance The telegraphic dispatches from the east tell of the choice that is being made and Tuesday will register the result

The population of Colorado increased in the last decade 12 198 Had the Democratic party of the state been true to itself denounced fusion from the start and [illegible] its best men to office this increase would have been doubled Comparatively few people [illegible] government resulting from fusion has retarded the growth and development of the state When Colorado politics again resolves itself into the two old parties the state will [illegible] of the most sanguine —([illegible] Journal

The Lincoln letter which is being quoted so freely by the matchless Bryan and his running mate Adlai It is said was not written by Lincoln at all John Hay and [illegible] private secretaries of the deceased president say that it was written in 1864 by Cora Hatch a spiritualistic medium who claimed that it had been dictated to her while in a trance by the spirit of President Lincoln It seems to be a chronic complaint of the adherents of latter day Democracy to rudely awaken the sheeted dead from their sepulchral slumbers to squeak and jibber of the glories of ancient Democracy The latter day tribe can point with pride to—nothing —(La Junta Tribune

After three and one half months Col Bryan concluded to accept the nomination tendered him by the Silver Republicans He did so in a letter filling a column in a newspaper but for some unaccountable reason he neglected to say a word about silver Think of accepting the nomination of a party of one principle and never alluding to it even though it be incorporated in the name of the party Surely this is Hamlet with Hamlet omitted How bitter must appear to those who have fought [illegible] what a mockery the letter must be to the silver partisans who still are hugging the delusion that silver is an issue and that Bryan is its only friend —(Greeley Sun

Colorado will never come out of her condition of nervous prostration until we have a legislature whose working majority belongs to one political party The trouble is that for the awful blunders and the incompetent acts of a fusion legislature no one is responsible The Democrats, Pops, Tellers and Silver Republicans are like four men standing in a circle and each one points at his neighbor and over his shoulder with his thumb, and as he points he says he is the guilty chap The record of fusion legislation in this state would ruin forever any one political party if it had to shoulder it There is a fair chance this fall to elect a Republican assembly —(Golden Globe

Republicanism is on the up grade and new accessions to the ranks are reported daily Even Colorado is waking up to the fact that there is an era of prosperity never dreamed of and that our present good times have been brought about by a Republican administration —(Glenwood Post

Under the caption A Democrat to Democrats J D Shewalter of Colorado Springs wrote an article for Sunday's Gazette which is one of the best things that has appeared in the campaign The writer desires it understood that he is not in sympathy with the acquisition of the Philippines and censures Bryan for his attitude in securing the ratification of the treaty Had he stood upon the principles of Democracy and withheld his influence at Washington the necessary majority could not have been secured There was the opportunity for Bryan to prove he was a patriot by opposing the policy of the party in power Now that the treaty is law by forcing imperialism as an issue that he himself made Bryan is placed in an unenviable position —(Gunnison Tribune

The increase in Republican voters in Colorado during the last two years has been immense Despite the fact that the state went 134 9[illegible] against the Republican ticket in 1896 it looks like a Republican victory this fall The ill effects of fusion have been so great that the thinking people cannot endure it further —(Gunnison News

The Democrats made a fatal blunder when they placed the name of D C Coates on their state ticket as candidate for lieutenant governor for any assistance that the ticket might receive from the labor unions will be given away by the name of Mr Coates being on the ticket will drive many a thinking man from supporting it This is no joke as the ill advised manager of the party will have discovered when it is everlastingly too late—(Pueblo Indicator

The voters of San Miguel county are heartily tired of the Democratic gang that has so long controlled local politics The gangsters will be repudiated this time The people have demanded a change and it looks this year as if they were going to get it A snap ceases to be a snap when it is in the hands of a few politicians It becomes a cinch and the people are going to [illegible] the ring that has subjugated decent politics for self-interest —(Telluride Examiner

That was a stinging rebuke administered to the Denver daily papers when a petition signed by a large number of business men was presented to them asking that for the sake of the good name and material welfare of the city they drop the disgraceful personal and sensational style of politics and conduct the remainder of the campaign on the merits of the issues before the public The rebuke was well deserved for so far as the papers were concerned the campaign had degenerated into wholesale abuse of each other of candidates and all actively engaged on either side and it was no wonder that the decent business men protested It will not do much good but some improvement is manifest in all except the News which appears to glory in its shame —(Boulder News

The Colorado Springs Gazette got in a new press lately and Editor Stevens tried its capacity Wednesday on a mammoth edition—20,000 of 22 pages illustrated It stood the test—and the Gazette stands the test as a leading Colorado daily Pictures of Larimer county men were H I Fedmen Clark Smith Judge I Mark Mills and Judge George W Bailey —(Berthoud Bulletin

The Colorado Springs Gazette has just set up in its office a brand new Goss printing press It was built expressly for the Gazette and is capable of printing 25,000 10 page papers an hour The press is claimed to be the [illegible] and most modern press in the west The history of western journalism does not record an instance where a newspaper so little known as the Gazette previous to its coming under the editorial management of Hon I N Stevens has moved to the front with such rapid strides Its circulation has more than trebled in a very few months and its influence for good is felt all over Colorado and even beyond the borders of the state Its success is phenomenal and the reason for it is found in the fact that Mr Stevens possesses in a marked degree the correct conception of what a first class great newspaper [illegible] The Gazette is loyal to the state and nation loyal to the Republican party and loyal to [illegible] its field for home circle No newspaper could have a better record and no newspaper is more deserving of success than the Gazette —(Fort Collins Courier

The Colorado Springs Gazette yesterday brought out one of the finest editions of 22 pages ever put out in the state In addition to many other features of marked interest the paper contains 127 half tone cuts which considering the fact that they had to be fitted onto a cylinder is a feat of journalism unequaled in the state —(Pueblo Star

Keep your eye on Silvery San Juan Had you noticed that silver was up to 64¾ cents an ounce and still advancing The [illegible] events in the far east are undoubtedly doing this and with the steady growth of trade with our new silver using colonies and the opening up of commerce in the orient there is [illegible] to believe that silver will go to 75 cents within the next year Men like James B Grant who make a constant study of the question think that it will With silver in the vicinity of 80 cents where it was in the early 80s San Juan will boom again and we may expect to see again the good times that existed in the southwest in the halcyon days before Cleveland's first free trade administration cast its blight upon silver-lead mining about 188[illegible] There are good times ahead for San Juan —(Montrose Press

The chapel is one of the most attractive missions in the city. It is located in a most desirable part of the city where it will accommodate a large number of people who are unable to attend services at other churches. The building is well equipped and can be used for general church services and meetings. The board of trustees has not decided upon a date for the dedication of the new chapel but it will probably be held within the next month.

To All Voters Sympathizing With the National (or Independent) Movement.

Colorado Springs Colo Oct 31 1900.

Dear Sir—It has been decided to advise those who, while wishing not to lose their votes cannot support either of the candidates for the presidency to write on one of the lines provided for that purpose in the printed ballot below the names of the regular candidates for Presidential Electors the name of any citizen of Colorado whom they know to entertain a like view with themselves on this subject and to mark the necessary X opposite thereto. Under the laws of Colorado, such substituted candidate for elector is entitled to be counted in lieu of any or all of those printed on the ballot.

To avoid any misunderstanding it is advisable for such voter to place his cross mark likewise opposite the names of each candidate he prefers for every other office respectively—state and local—on the printed ballot instead of voting a straight ticket with exceptions.

While it is not necessary that there should be an agreement on one person to be voted for as such elector—that course might be [illegible] the number of citizens known to sympathize with this view of political duty been larger and had time permitted of the exchange of views in regard to a selection—the undersigned has however been urged and has consented to allow his name to be used by those who are without other preference.

Yours respectfully

A BACHELOR'S ROMANCE

"A Bachelor's Romance" Mrs Martha Morton's delightful comedy which the present Neill company will present in this city next Saturday evening was originally produced two seasons ago by that popular actor Sol Smith Russell. The Neill company has the exclusive right to present this famous success in America paying the author for such privilege the sum of $500 per week. In it Mr James Neill will assume the role of David Holmes the part originally played by Mr Russell. The atmosphere of "A Bachelor's Romance" is distinctly rural. The scenes are laid in New York and New England and the characters are thoroughly American. The literary flavor of "A Bachelor's Romance" is contributed by David Holmes the bachelor, the literary critic of the Review. Mr Mulberry an antique literary man who is unable to turn his college education into money bemoans the sterility of the time in matters of literature. Mr Ethald Savage a modern and thoroughly up-to-date journalist and the author of Mulberry and Harold Reynolds a reporter. Whatever days of wickedness and worldliness there is in the play is [illegible] Gerald Holmes [illegible] pleasure loving man of the world and Helen La Grande who on the other hand is a fascinating widow of the world of society. The first and the third acts occur in David's study the second in Helen La Grande's fashionable Murray Hill home and the fourth in a typical New England home where one catches at the peculiarly delightful atmosphere so characteristic of Sol Smith Russell's plays.

A young deacon of a church [illegible] New York to secure vocal help for the village choir. Through the mishaps of his father he is brought in contact with a worldly theatrical manager who introduces him to professional actresses of dashing mien and possessing those alluring qualities of personal charm that captivate his susceptible nature.

The [illegible] people who fail to understand how the rise or fall of mining stocks is or can be of any interest to the [illegible] local business man. SPEARFISH PLANT IN BLACK HILLS

Special to the Gazette

Deadwood S D Nov 3—The Portland Mining company of Clinton Ia has started up its new 60 ton cyanide plant as also has the Wasp No 2 company. The Portland mill is located at Central City and the ore will be shipped to it from the company's mines at Portland. The Wasp company has erected its plant in the Yellow Creek district four miles south of Deadwood. These plants make eleven cyanide works now in successful operation in Lawrence county. The process of cyaniding ores in the different camps in the county has been thoroughly tested now and it has been proven a success in every particular.

J K Vanatta and Henry Wattson of Colorado Springs Colo officers of the Spearfish Mining and Reduction company left this week for their homes to be gone a few days. Their company is erecting the largest crushing cyanide plant in the Black Hills with a daily capacity of 200 tons. The mill will be ready [illegible] November 10. Mr Vanatta in an interview said

A good many Colorado Springs mining men are watching the success of our plant. If our company successfully treats the ore in our mine there will be a company of mining men organized within five days equally as large as ours which will do just as we have done in erecting a cyanide plant. We [illegible] make a success of our enterprise [illegible] in character which is the easiest to treat by the cyanide process in the Black Hills. It needs a 20-ton cyanide plant in [illegible] a short distance from our new mill which has been making big profits for every [illegible] our kind of ore. [illegible] class of mining men in the United States is now giving up looking for the [illegible] gold mines and attention is being paid to the big low grade propositions with large ore bodies uniform in values which can be figured upon [illegible] years ahead. It is better to make a profit of only [illegible] cents per ton every day in the year than it is to make a much larger sum only part of the time. The Black Hills is full of these big low grade propositions. When worked upon a large scale say 200 to 500 tons [illegible] day they are the greatest kind of [illegible] proposition.

The Spearfish plant is being erected at Ragged Top eleven miles west of [illegible] in the limestone formation. [illegible] ore is found in great blankets which cover the ground in all directions at a depth of ten to forty feet. [illegible] plant began operating the ground [illegible] shoots of ore have [illegible] rich in gold [illegible]. The plant can be enlarged to [illegible] tons daily capacity without much additional expense. The Ragged Top district is about five miles long and four miles [illegible] being a good many [illegible] propositions [illegible] just as good as that of this company. The general average of the [illegible] is about $10 per ton gold with some silver and it is expected that the total cost of mining and treating the ore will not exceed $2.25 per ton.

There has been a need of a custom cyanide and chlorination plant in Deadwood and vicinity for some time. There are [illegible] good many mines that would be opened if there were a place [illegible] which ore could be shipped. The [illegible] Mining company which was organized by W S Tiller of this city has about closed a deal for a millsite in this city upon which a 100 ton chlorination mill will be erected right away. The company is a reorganization of the old American Express company which successfully operated the American Express mines in Sheeptail gulch four miles west of this city. A much larger profit can be made by treating the ore by the cyanide process. The company has bonded a large number of claims surrounding the American Express mine. The new plant will be the finest in the Black Hills costing about $100,000.

Every so often there is a rumor afloat that the Crosby-Ehrich syndicate of Colorado Springs will commence work on the development of the group of claims at [illegible] on the Burlington route four miles south of this city. The company has held a bond on the ground for nearly two years complying with all of the requirements [illegible] immediately on the Homestake ledge and it is generally believed that the Homestake ore body will be found at a depth not to exceed 1,000 feet. The company has given out the impression here that the ground which purchased and that very large works will be erected.

Shipments of ore have commenced from the Montezuma mine located immediately west of the city in Dead[illegible] to the smelter. The ore is very rich in iron with some values in copper. About forty tons per day will be shipped. The mine touches both Lead and Deadwood lying between the two townsites. The ore is used at the smelter for a flux.

A number of eastern capitalists are giving their attention to the great deposits of iron ore in the Southern Hills. A company called the Iron Mountain Mining company was organized this summer by Samuel Scott of Custer. It was proposed to ship 1,000 tons of the ore per month to the Omaha Grant smelter at Omaha and a smelting works at Denver. It has been impossible to get teams enough to haul this amount to the Burlington station. [illegible] miles northwest of Custer is the largest vein of iron ore known to exist in the world. It is from 1,000 to 2,000 feet wide and it can be traced for ten miles [illegible] south. Iron Mountain is about 1,000 feet high and it is in reality [illegible] width [illegible] feet [illegible] from 40 to 70 per [illegible] iron free from sulphur and titanium [illegible] the percentage of phosphorus [illegible] ore also carries an average value of $2.31 per ton in gold. The mountain [illegible] is about five miles [illegible] company has surveyed out a line which will start from Custer taking in the Marble quarry of the Black Hills Porcelain Clay and Marble company the Spokane mine and thence to Iron Mountain. Owing to the remoteness of the iron deposit it has not attracted the attention of capitalists that it would had it been nearer a railroad. One of the greatest mining propositions [illegible] to be found in the Black Hills is the working of this iron ore by smelters right on the ground. There are a great [illegible] surrounding the Iron [illegible] that would [illegible] providing reduction works were near at hand. [illegible] feet of this great iron vein is [illegible] being a bright red in color. This oxidized ore makes an excellent paint pigment.

The Black Hills Porcelain Clay and Marble company shipped a carload of marble from the quarry five miles east of Custer this week to Hot Springs where it is to be manufactured into monuments by an Edgemont company. This is the first shipment of marble ever made from the Black Hills. The company will now be able to fill the many orders that have been accumulated during the summer. The ledge of marble is forty feet thick and a mile and a quarter in length.

Chicago capitalists have bonded the Old Bill mine located four miles north of Custer. The mine has produced ore. It is stated that the North Star Mining company of Omaha has struck its ledge of ore at the 300 foot level about 110 feet from the shaft. The company has one of the best mines in the Southern Hills having a vertical of [illegible] feet wide which will give an average assay value of about $18 per ton gold. Some of the most prominent business men in Omaha are backing the enterprise. A company is to be organized to work the May mine [illegible] miles west of Custer.

"I found your medicine a blessing to me and my family."

There are women who feel something like resentment toward the children who rob their mother of her health and strength. Men do not usually realize how much the mother gives to each child to her own loss. Women accept it as part of the ordination of Nature and pay the debt grudgingly. Yet in Nature's plan every child is a new joy and fresh happiness. It isn't the children that steal the mother's strength. It is the unnatural drain and pains which weaken her.

Every woman who has used Dr Pierce's Favorite Prescription has found in it the one thing woman has waited for. It stops the drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, makes the baby's advent a pleasure and his life a blessing. No opiates or narcotics are contained in Favorite Prescription.

The Gold King claim, belonging to this Company, now gives indications of becoming a big mine. Three sets of lessees are developing it, and shipments are being sent out. Yesterday in the Local Pulpits

CHRIST STILLING THE STORM ON THE SEA

Rev. Pressly Thompson has returned from his vacation, spent in the east, and is again occupying his pulpit at the United Presbyterian church. Yesterday morning Mr. Thompson preached on the subject, "Christ Stilling the Storm on the Sea." He based his remarks on the text, Matthew 8:24-27, which recounts the incident of the storm on the Sea of Galilee. Mr. Thompson spoke in substance as follows:

"The Christian would naturally first turn to Jerusalem as the most delightful place for visitation in Palestine, and secondly to the Sea of Galilee, which was the scene of so much of the Saviour's work. The Sea of Galilee is picturesquely beautiful and historically it is more closely connected with the public life of Christ than any other part of Palestine. The sea is surrounded on all sides by mountains rising to a height of 1,000 feet above the level of the Mediterranean whilst the sea itself is 682 feet below the level of the Mediterranean. Its natural position makes it subject to sudden and violent storms.

"It was after days of the most severe toil that Jesus found Himself so weary that He must find rest so He asked His disciples to cross over the Sea of Galilee from Capernaum to Gadara. During the passage a violent storm arose and the lives of those on board were in danger. Jesus stilled the waves of the sea. Jesus said: 'Peace, be still,' and there was a great calm.

"This miracle becomes a parable to us, teaching first, that in human experiences there are often events that are pictured figuratively by the storm. They shake human life to its very center. Such an experience came to Jacob when his son Joseph was sold and the former thought that he had been killed by the wild beasts. Such an experience came to Naomi when her husband and sons died in the land of Moab and her estate in Palestine was unredeemed.

"They come suddenly like the storms on the sea. They are dangerous and try human strength and human courage and even faith in God.

"The miracle teaches secondly that the presence and power of Jesus bring the calm. He is lord of the winds and the waves. So in human experiences He brings us the calm. He inspires faith because He himself has weathered the wildest storms. He speaks to the soul, 'Peace, be still,' and we are able to ride safely the stormy seas."

MR. ORMES DISCUSSED ELECTION METHODS

At the Second Congregational church last night Rev. Manly D. Ormes discussed the subject of elections. His discourse was forceful and impressive. It was an able exposition of the evils of present election methods and the duty of Christians toward remedying such evils. Following is a synopsis of the discourse:

"As a minister of the gospel, I do not claim any superior knowledge or judgment concerning the men and the issues of this campaign. Laymen have the same sources of information and the same moral instincts and moral judgment as clergymen. It is however, the minister's privilege and function to remind the people that they are men, and citizens and Christians before they are partisans. It is his duty to restrain people from excess; to call upon them to avoid the bitterness of partisanship; to summon them to consult their Christian conscience and Christian judgment; to take all questions into the court of duty and honor, into the court of God, to act in accordance with the highest interests of the people, and of the kingdom of God on earth.

"There are a few evils that may in the first place be pointed out, in our present method of campaigning.

"It may be a matter of taste and opinion but my judgment is that it would add dignity to the campaign and take away from it no value if the candidates for the highest offices should not be urged to travel about to exhibit themselves and to make speeches. As it is managed now, it is a tremendous mental and physical strain. Under such circumstances a man cannot possibly contribute anything of value to the campaign. When completely worn out, Mr. Hanna and Mr. Roosevelt have said things their sympathizers regretted; while Mr. Bryan might not have charged the Republicans with intending to build forts near all our large cities except at the end of a long day of speech-making.

"Another evil is the gathering and spending of large sums of money, whether the money has been gathered from candidates or from those who have prospered under an administration. A candidate who has spent a year's salary in campaign expenses may not yield to temptation, but he is tempted to make up his subscription in some dishonest way out of the opportunities of his office. If a party has taxed the most prosperous men to secure its continuance in power, there is a temptation not to pass corrective or restrictive legislation.

"Again, when a campaign begins partisanship is not yet extravagant, but it soon becomes so unless restrained. Late in a campaign men otherwise upright will indulge in wilful misrepresentation of facts, will make charges, which they know to be false. A man who lies in private life is considered totally unworthy the respect and confidence of his neighbors. But a man who successfully invents and circulates lies in a political canvass is called an excellent politician, one worthy of reward from his party. But the public speaker or the newspaper writer who spreads false rumors ought to be branded as a liar, and an enemy of the common good. It is too much to expect that we ought to be able to get facts from our public press during a political canvass? Is it too much to wish that our newspapers on different sides would agree as to the facts, that they might put the public welfare above party success? They would differ then alone in the inference to be drawn from the same facts. Is it possible for example to learn from the newspapers of the town the real points at issue between the two nominees for county commissioner? Laying aside all interest you may have in either man has there not been a distortion of the facts in the case? If you did not belong to either party could you find out the issue from the party papers? There would be a tremendous gain in my opinion, if the truth should always be uncovered. Party discussion could then always proceed on a higher plane. We ought to be so devoted to the truth, to have so much love, passion for it, that we could not possibly make an alliance with falsehood, that we could not tolerate it in our political campaigns. This is one reason why many of the people best qualified for public service will not allow themselves to become candidates. [illegible] will not allow themselves to be made a target for falsehoods. The following item appeared in the Gazette of Friday morning:

"'A CAMPAIGN VICTIM.'

"'Grand Rapids, Mich., Nov. 1.—County Treasurer B. Proctor, renominated by the Republicans for state senator from the Seventeenth district, committed suicide today by taking laudanum. Campaign criticism of alleged irregularities in the administration of the county treasury is thought to have compelled him to take his life. His deputies stoutly maintain that there is no shortage in his accounts.'

"And was it not unwarranted abuse and ridicule which killed Horace Greeley.

"Those who indulge in political tricks care more for party success than they do for the better interests of their country. It was unpatriotic to make political capital out of the stupid blunder of the Rev. Mr. Burchard when he made his famous alliteration of "Rum, Romanism and Rebellion." Neither Mr. Blaine nor his party at the time were responsible for such sentiments and the [illegible] remark of a private citizen cost Mr. Blaine the presidency.

"III. What is the duty of a Christian in the present campaign? It is to be and to act as a Christian, to place the good of the country above party, to place truth and honor above party, to apply the same tests to our own party if we have one, that we do to the opposite party, to reprove party tricks, party falsehoods, party evils; to advocate improvements in the conduct of party affairs, notably just now in the method of making nominations; to see the larger interests of the cause of truth, of education, of temperance and virtue.

"Some maintain that the only way to reach these evils is for all Christian people to themselves form a party. Those behind the Prohibition party make this argument. Just now they are trying to get a million voters to pledge themselves against President McKinley for his action concerning the canteen question. This is a very effective weapon, with which to rebuke the action of a public official, and sometimes must be resorted to. In this particular case I will not argue for or against this method. Each one must decide for himself whether—all things taken into account, our intricate and involved foreign and domestic affairs—that will be the best thing to do. There are two classes of Christians, those who see some one or two evils in very prominent outline—and who, trusting that all other moral and civil questions will be settled aright, give their eyes to the overthrowing of this one evil. Then there are those who think they see the whole, either one who, for example [illegible] that taking everything into account it may be better to seek the election of a man for president who has had little experience in public affairs, especially if he is a [illegible]. [illegible] our foreign policy [illegible] and statesmanship of the highest order and the highest experience I would leave it again with people who should choose either course. God bless the man of any party who has prayed for wisdom and guidance, and has seriously meditated on his duty, and who, when he sees it as a duty, [illegible] proceeds to do it. I simply offer this suggestion that if another Christian comes to a different conclusion from you you should not be uncharitable, or claim superior [illegible] wisdom.

"James Freeman Clarke [illegible]:

"'A politician thinks of the next election; a statesman of the next generation. A politician looks for the success of his party; a statesman for that of the country. A statesman wishes to steer, while a politician is satisfied to drift.'

"Let us be statesmen and elect statesmen to office. Let us save America, to save the world. God bless the dear old republic, and sanctify her through the high-minded conscientious statesmanship of her people, to the elevation of all lands and all peoples on the face of the earth.

TEMPLETON PREACHED DUTIES OF CHRISTIANS

Rev. W. G. Templeton has returned home from a two weeks visit in the east and he filled his pulpit yesterday morning and evening at the Cumberland Presbyterian church. Both services were well attended. The members of the church gladly welcomed their pastor home and he responded by expressing his pleasure at the progress made during his absence. In the morning he preached on "The Duties of Christians." He took his text from John 13:17, which reads, "If ye know these things, blessed are ye if ye do them." In the course of his remarks he said:

"The duties of the Christian are not duties that stand out by themselves but they are duties which grow out of great lessons. In the text Christ teaches us to serve one another. The true test of our loyalty to Him is service. We cannot divorce principles of this holy word from the things which are to be practiced. The boy goes to school to learn but that is not the object of his life. The college graduate is not a full-fledged man—he is simply equipped to serve his fellow men. What we want is equipment for everyday life. Knowledge is the tool with which we can serve our fellow men. If we have the best education it is worthless unless we can use it for the good of humanity.

"What we ought to do is to put ourselves in the way to serve Christ. He practiced what He preached. The grandest picture in the whole Bible is where He is washing the feet of His disciples. He lifts such duties to a plane where it is Godlike.

"We have many great men and they command our greatest admiration. Their pictures are seen in public places. Their names are common to all, but, may we ask, are there no great women? Yes, if the angels in heaven could select the greatest persons on earth they would not all be men. There are the women who care for the dying soldiers—who watch over their children whom God has given them—these number among the greatest because of the duties which they perform.

"The educated men are not the greatest men in the world. The poor blacksmith who wields his hammer to serve his fellow men and to make a living for his family is as great as the president of these United States. The happiest people are those who go forth to do the things which God has given them to do. The happiness which comes with such work is compensation enough. The blessedness of service can be secured in no other way than to perform your duties with a will. The people who are doing God's will are the happiest. There is not a Christian in this wide world who is not happy if that person is doing his or her duty every day."

IS A CHRISTIAN SOCIALISM POSSIBLE?

The First Presbyterian church was filled to overflowing last evening when Dr. Boyle preached on the subject: "Is a Christian Socialism Possible?"

"I am prepared," said the preacher, "to answer the question in the affirmative, if you are prepared to admit the claim, that Christian socialism is Christianity applied, so as to govern by its principles not only the mutual relationship of man to man but the higher relationship of man to God. In this the thought of a social brotherhood will not be made more of than the thought of a spiritual brotherhood, by the social instinct in man, looking for this world's bread, will be held in right relation to the instincts of the worshiping man.

"It is necessary to guard against the assumptions of a false social philosophy which speaks against constituted authority as "organized social wrong." It is necessary to ask that the conscience of the borrower and the conscience of the lender be brought to the talisman of a word like this from the lips of the Master of all men, "A new commandment give I unto you that ye love one another."

Much has been done during the past fifty years for the betterment of social conditions. For the making of law the poor man has the privilege of the all-powerful ballot as well as the rich man. The shortened hours of labor have given to the wage earner the dignity of a man instead of the drudgery of the slave. Legal enactment keeps the child, up to the age of fifteen, out of the sweat-shop and in the school. Much effort is winning a richer reward than ever before and social reform is doing more than ever to let rays of heaven's sunlight into homes of poverty and misfortune.

And yet we are living in an age when legalized monopoly crowds out of business, without either party or conscience, the poor competitor. When, as Bishop Potter of New York says: "The growth of wealth wasteful and wanton is watched step by step by a deepening poverty which Lazarus-like one day asks for bread and wolf-like the next day asks for justice," when the laborer sinks his individuality in a trades union, because collective labor is the only weapon which successfully offsets selfishness in capital.

While I have no patience with the man who hoards for the sake of hoarding, I have as little with the man who wants what is hoarded without asking for it. The motive force of much that calls itself social reform in this day is the hope that those who do not share may get something at the [illegible] deal. One of the most [illegible] forms of social democracy is the man who, in his usual language, 'has it in for capital,' forgetting that capital put into channels of trade is always and everywhere the bread of the man who cannot plan for himself, forgetting that the executive brain which plans for the running of one hundred looms is worth more to the world in money values than the man who operates one of them.

There are levels in life, higher and lower levels, but the grades between the levels are not marked by having much and having little, but by being much or being little.

I believe that every man who has a dollar to invest is God's trustee for its proper investment and that every man who helps him is his partner. 'Live and let live' is [illegible] than philosophy, but it is only a negative principle after all. "Live and help live" is the principle of Christian socialism which has in its realization the promise of co-operation for the benefit of all and sympathy for the comfort of all and the Christ of fact and faith for the spiritual need of all.

There was a very large attendance and a nice sum was realized for the fund. In addition to the banquet a literary and musical programme was rendered.

At the meeting tonight Prof. Scott will take up Prof. J. R. Buchannan, the scientist, and will discuss the prediction made by that gentleman in 1890 to the effect that Galveston would be destroyed. In connection with Prof. Buchannan's prediction Prof. Scott will also discuss the predictions made by Prof. P. E. Ormsby, who named September 8, 1900, as the day on which Galveston would be destroyed, and who has also predicted the destruction of New Orleans, Mobile, St. Augustine, Savannah, Charleston, Richmond, Baltimore, Philadelphia, Jersey City and New York city.

Prof. Scott will also read the horoscope of Brother John McLennan and will tell him his ruling planets and their influence upon him. All Workmen in good standing who are strangers in the city are invited to attend and all are urged to come early as a large attendance is expected.

DEGREE OF POCAHONTAS

Weetamoo council No. 27, Degree of Pocahontas, has had some very interesting meetings during the last month. The members have responded with readings, music and recitations during the time allotted to the "Good of the Order," making the meetings both interesting and profitable.

The council will give a social dance and supper on Monday evening, November 12. The music will be the best that can be obtained and the ladies are expending a great deal of energy to make the supper [illegible]. Everybody is invited to attend and a pleasant evening is promised.

ELKS

Owing to the election coming tomorrow night, the Elks held their initiation meeting last Tuesday night. Ten candidates were run through the mill. A lunch followed the business meeting.

The glee club is progressing very satisfactorily. A good chorus has been developed already and the club promises to take a prominent place among the musical organizations of the city.
